

required to keep their grades up and pay some nominal costs through earned income or work service credit. These grants make a debt-free college degree attainable for many students. For more information about any of these programs visit www.nclearnandearn.gov. Students should talk with their guidance counselor to find out how to enroll in a Learn and Earn school, sign up for courses in Learn and Earn Online or apply for the EARN grant.

###